As the nation grapples with the impact of CoVid19, Basiz salutes the spirit of service to the nation by the doctors, paramedical staff, security services, municipal corporation staff and all others who have formed the front line of defence against this virus.

Led ably by our respected Prime Minister and his colleagues, they have been able to contain this catastrophe to a great extent. A lot still needs to be done and Basiz stands with the country in this moment of crisis. Responding to the call of our PMO India, Basiz and its associate organisations, have decided to participate in the PM Cares Fund. This is in addition to individual contributions made by the Basiz Team to the Fund.

Books To Vatsalya Trust

Continuing this spirit of service to our less fortunate brethren, we recently assisted the Vatsalya Trust by helping them with a complete brand-new set of children's book Amar Chitra Katha, for their library and reading room.

Vatsalya Trust, an ISO and gold standard organisation, renders outstanding service in various fields. The main objective of the Trust is to care, help and empower the destitute and deprived so that they live a life of dignity and self-respect. The Trust has been providing yeoman services, among others, in the fields of pediatric and geriatric care for over 35 years irrespective of caste, creed, religion, gender and age of the care recipient.

We have also identified further areas where we would be working with Vatsalya Trust.

Association with Children Home in Mumbai, India

Cancer Seva Program

We were fortunate to contribute by way of computers for the children's home. It was amazing to see the home pretty clean. The children were taught Namaste, Good Morning and are being taught informally. Due to intense social media negative scrutiny, the good work is not being propagated. The home needs many more things including simple things like Phenyl every month. Our computers are helping the office staff. The government has done its best in the last few years to today.

To protect the privacy of the body, we refrain from mentioning the name of this very august organisation which has been serving people since 1939. Some of the stalwarts of the Indian freedom struggle and great luminaries have also visited this Institution.

Helping Hands

The recent pandemic has hit various sections of our society hard. Many daily wagers have lost their means of livelihood and in some cases, they have reached a situation where it has become impossible for them to prepare the next meal. We have been using the services of drivers and other categories of the workforce across our offices in India. Some of these people are among those who have no assignments/ work and as a consequence, they have no income. All of them have families to support. This is a very vulnerable section of our population. Keeping their survival issues in mind, Basiz and Sujata & Sesh Foundation have sent across the monthly requirements of groceries and home provisions for the past three months to this set of drivers/ others. And we will continue doing this till such time as they are able to get back to their feet.

Sujata Sesh Foundations's outreach program

Sujata Sesh Foundation is pleased to be able to make the difference to lives of single mothers and their children by enabling them to finish their school. 2 children from different academic backgrounds were supported today by taking care of their school fees. One of them a girl in the 12th standard and the other a boy in the 5th standard. The core issue here is not just a one time donation. It is a follow up program to track the student progress , advise the mother's for the child's academic improvement and more importantly, enable the mother's to stand on their feet by enlarging the services they offer by way of business referrals.

One of them is a beautician.Apart from the school fee being take care off, efforts are being made to refer her to more clients, so that ultimately she helps others the way she was helped. A responsibility is placed also on the ones that are better skilled within the group to help the others voluntarily.

The cases were bought and validated by SS foundation by Pipra Foundation led by Shri.Rakesh Mishra. Detailed interviews were conducted with the mother's Sujata Sesh Foundations's outreach program is based on the principle of holistic philanthropy as well as Self Help Group concept.

Sujata Sesh Foundation's Beti Padhao Shibir

Sujata Sesh Foundation (SS Foundation) made a donation to a young girl who lost her father recently. This was done in collaboration with Kohka Foundation. SS Foundation made this contribution to ensure that the teenaged girl was able to continue her studies without a break. This is part of our Beti Padhao Shibir. Among other activities, the Mumbai based SS Foundation works in the areas of increasing urban civic consciousness, medical aid, education, skill development and fine arts and culture. Kohka Foundation, based in Madhya Pradesh, is a non profit organisation working towards the general upliftment of tribal and underpriveleged sections of society in India. As a matter of respect for the privacy of the recipient, SS Foundation does not publicise the name of the recipient or the value.

Fine Arts

Association with Purva Sukrtam Organized by the Indian Musicological Society in collaboration with Insync

Basiz is an active supporter of fine arts and culture. Among our many activities in this space, the latest one was our association with "Purva Sukrtam", a three-day cultural festival in Mumbai, India, organized by the Indian Musicological Society in collaboration with Insync, a venture that nurtures Indian Classical Music and Dance through INSYNC (TV Channel & Android App). This event featured reputed artists such as Mysore Manjunath, Mandolin Rajesh, Pt. Jayateerth Mevundi and Padmashri Pt. Venkatesh Kumar. At this event, our Founder and Managing Director, CA Aditya Sesh was felicitated by the organizers, for his support of the festival. Speaking on the sidelines of the event, CA. Aditya Sesh said that more such events were necessary to help keep the flag of India's fine arts flying high. Incidentally, in addition to his academic and professional achievement, CA. Aditya Sesh is an accomplished violinist and has provided violin support on stage to many accomplished vocalists.
